

I support RM-10867. This proposal makes good sense for both amateur radio and for the public who is served by services of radio operators who assist in emergencies and disasters.